Remodling Commissioners Office

Work was started this week remodeling the Commissioners office. The entire inside of the building will be torn out and rebuilt and the place will be refurnished making a cozy office. The work will probably take about three weeks to complete and during that time the Commissioners office will be in the town hall.

Council Sitting As A Board Of Equalization

The City Council set as a Board of Equalization on the tax list of the town last Monday afternoon and again on Tuesday afternoon. Several changes have been made in the original list as turned in by Town Assessor Churchill. The Council will set again as such board on the last Tuesday afternoon of this month and also on the last Saturday afternoon of the month, and anyone who has a kick over the valuation placed on their property by Assessor Churchill are requested to be present.

A good show at the Rink tomorrow night.

Boston Cafe Will Change Hands Soon

W. V. Barron, formerly of Salt Lake, this week closed a deal with A. J. Kalkins for the building on Front Street now occupied by the Boston Cafe. Mr. Barron is a first class restaurant man and as soon as the present months rent is up he will take charge of the Cafe.

Watson Here After More Machinery

L. T. Watson the well known prospector and mining man is in town this week getting a scow load of machinery which he will take up the river to his property at Strongs Bank. On the scow is a large pump and other machinery for the working of the gravel of the bank by hydraulic power.

Seward is to have a hospital to cost 12,000.

The steamer Shushana is reported to have sunk in the Tolovana river.

School opened at Seward on September 10th with an enrollment of 62.

Facts About Wrangell And Mexican Question

Coast and Alaska Papers Print Wild Stories That Are Not So

Wrangell seems to be the subject of all kinds of writings these days with regard to the Mexican affair. While many of these articles are more of a comedy paragraph others, are of such a nature that the reader, unfamiliar with the true conditions of the town, would come to the conclusion that we are ruled here by mob law and that the citizens had taken the law into their own hands with no regard for the Federal officers, or as one paper stated, "we still have a touch of the primitive". This is decidedly untrue and only casts a blot upon the name of our town, and for the purpose of righting this wrong we will try and give as true a record of event as we are able, and only hope that the same attention will be paid to this article as has been to the factious dispatches that have been sent out by some person who thought out a "yellow journal" story of the affair. When recording the story of the stabbing of Mr. Oscar Carlson we did not go into details in regard to the appointing of the committee for the reason that we did not care to attract attention to the fact that one had been appointed. The facts of the case are:

Oscar Carlson's dray wagon was stopped by a band of seven drunken Mexicans, near the power plant, about five o'clock on the afternoon of September 14th, and as he jumped from the wagon one of the Mexicans stabbed him in the face. The matter was reported to the authorities, and as Marshal Wallace was in Ketchikan attending court, Jailor Dalgity started in pursuit but could not catch the guilty party, although he was taken into custody several days later and bound over to the grand jury. For some time past there has been considerable stealing going on in the town and it has been laid at the door of these undesirables, and as Wrangell has no municipal police or town marshal it was almost impossible to stop it, while we have a competent Federal official his force is so small that policing the town is practically impossible. And hence after the stabbing of Mr. Carlson matters seemed to reach a climax and several of the prominent

Going Up River With Evinrudes

Mr. J. E. Chilberg and son are in town again, having made the trip down from the coast on the river to get a new Evinrude to make the trip to the mine. Mr. Chilberg will try a new stunt in river navigating when he leaves for the mine again as he intends to hitch a couple or three Evinrude motors to the stern of the scow for furnishing the power and promises to navigate anything up to a sand bar.

More Big Game On Way Out After Hunt

D. T. Foley of Virginia, Minn., and N. C. Drew of Duluth, Minn., are in town waiting a boat South. Mr. Foley and Mr. Drew are returning from a hunting expedition into the Cassiar and have a good bunch of heads and furs.

Alaskan Dogs For Europe Battle Fields

Nome, Oct. 1.—Clearing for Seattle Wednesday, the steamer Senator took in addition to a large amount of gold dust, 200 Alaskan huskies which will be put into service in the battlefields of Europe. Lieutenant Rene Hass, of the French army, who purchased the animals, stated that they would be used in the mountains of Lorraine and Alsace. Harness and sleds which will be used with the dogs were also purchased here in large amounts.

Included in the dog shipment were the famous Scotty Allan sweep stake team, from the Allan-Darling Kennels. Mr. Allen will accompany the team as far as Quebec. The pick of the dogs of the North have been chosen to make up this shipment and among the mushers of the frozen trail it is believed that the sale of so many huskies of the best variety materially effect the dog derby which has become an annual feature in the far north.

The big cannery tender Halcyon, of the Sanitary cannery, left this afternoon for the south where she will be laid up for the winter. Capt. Fowler is in command of the boat and Dave Lewis will take the engine for the trip. Fred Lewis and two other boys will make the trip down on her.

Printing Point Does Not Bob Up and Down

In an L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter the point on the paper which is to receive the type impression is stationary at the instant the type hits. The carriage does not bob up and down when the shift is made to write capitals.

Why?

Because the type is shifted—not the carriage.

The only movement of the carriage is back and forth on its closely adjusted ball bearing runways—and this does not take place while the print is being made. There is no lifting of the carriage.

This is one reason why L. C. Smith & Bros. type-writing is free from blurs and every letter in the right place.

THE MAN UP TOWN SAYS

Fact About The Mexican Question

men of the town called upon the Mayor and requested that the Council see if some way could not be devised whereby we should have a town marshal or get rid of the element who were making such necessary, so at their request Mayor Grant called a special meeting of the council on Wednesday evening, September 15. The meeting was called to order at 8:30 by Mayor Grant, who stated that the meeting was called for the purpose of finding a way to police the town or get rid of the undesirable element that makes the policing necessary. A large crowd of interested citizens attended the meeting, and after a thorough discussion there seemed no way for a steady marshal owing to the condition of the town funds, and then it was finally decided to appoint a special committee who would be willing to assist the authorities without compensation for the purpose of seeing that the 65 Mexicans who have worked the past season at the Alaska Packers Association cannery were all taken south on the cannery ship, as it was known that several of them intended spending the winter here. The committee which were duly appointed by the council was F. E. Smith, chairman, Ole Johnson, H. D. Campbell, Geo. H. Edson and two members to be appointed by the Chairman, who were, Arnt Sorset and Chas. Benjamin. This committee made a trip to the cannery and waited upon Manager Shott and seen that the 65 Mexicans who came up on the cannery ship were taken back. After this they made an effort to find a way to rid the town of the thirteen Mexicans who had spent the winter and summer living here. Five of this number are now in the local jail, four are still in town, and four have left, two of whom were furnished transportation by the town. The committee has waited upon all of the Mexicans asking them to leave or charges of vagrancy would be filed against them.

There has been no mob law or any violence threatened or committed of any kind. There has been no notices posted or issued other than a notice sent to each saloon man of the town asking him to refrain from selling any liquor to Mexicans which the saloon men have done by mutual consent. The notice which reads "Any Mexican found in Wrangell or vicinity at the expiration of twenty-four hours will be hanged" which most of the papers state was posted, is only the "hop dream" of some highly imaginary person who in writing it thought he showed journalistic ability. Part of the story given out in Seattle by the officers of the steamship Al-Ki and it up to them to correct the wrong impression given. The committee has not been discharged and are still looking after the interests of the town from a citizens standpoint only, and are doing their duty lawfully and to the best of their ability.

Big Features Coming To Photoshow

Mr. Richmond prop. of Wrangell's Popular Photoshow announces that he has signed with representatives of the Famous Players Co. of N. Y. to show their big productions here. The first one scheduled to arrive in a very short time now. Mr. Richmond has gone to considerable expense securing these big attractions but feels that the people of Wrangell are entitled to the best that can be obtained, regardless of expense and that with the showing of the first few numbers, he will have no difficulty in packing the houses here, the same as is being done on the outside where ever these pictures are shown.

These features have had phenomenal runs in all of the larger cities of the United States, and it only by the rarest chance that the people of Alaska, isolated off as we are, can get the opportunity of seeing them at all. The list of people starring in these productions include those of international fame such as, Mary Pickford, Hazel Dawn, May Irwin, Sara Benhardt, Mrs. Fiske, Robt. Edson, John Barrimore, Bruce McRae, Wm. Farnum, Carlyle Blackwell and others.

The price of admission will be the same on very rare occasions so watch for the dates.

Applications For Pentions

Applications have been received by the governor's office to be referred to the board of trustees of the Pioneer's Home at Sitka, from six pioneers of Alaska, who desire relief under the act passed by the last legislature, and known as Chapter 64 of the Session Laws of 1915.

The applicants were Robert McClellan Becker, 81 years of age, a native of New York, at present a resident of Skagway, and who came to Alaska in 1873.

John Solen, 75 years of age, a native of Canada, at present a resident of Fairbanks and who has been in Alaska since 1900.

Joseph Nors, 71 years of age, a native of Germany, and a resident of Alaska since 1897.

Fred Seger, 71 years of age; a native of Prussia, and who came to Alaska in 1889.

Thomas Hill, 66 years of age, who came to Alaska in 1895.

Frank V. Lamb, native of Illinois 65 years of age and who has been a resident of Alaska since 1900. The last four all reside at Nome.

Asks Police Protection From His Wife

Walter Campen yesterday filed suit in the district court against Celia Gertrude Campen asking that she be bound over to preserve the peace.

The plaintiff alleges that the defendant in the suit has been guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment against both himself and the three children and that three separate times the defendant has attempted to take the life of the plaintiff. The complaint alleges that the defendant has made threats against the life of the plaintiff since she has been discharged from the federal jail, where she was confined on a charge of shooting the plaintiff with intent to kill at Kake recently and that he fears for his life.

The complaint also alleges that Campen has provided a home for the children in Juneau, and prays for an order restraining defendant from interfering with them and be placed under restraint to keep the peace; and also for other equitable relief as may seem necessary.

Billy Woodworth Lands In Seattle With Big Story

The Empire today sent two queries to Seattle, one to its correspondent and one to The Times, for information regarding the Associated Press article appearing in The Dispatch this morning which intimated that Billie Woodworth and Ben Hunt, just arrived in Seattle in a small launch, had reported the death by drowning of one of their party, named Anderson, off Douglas Island.

Here is one of the replies: "They reported Anderson was drowned when the launch swamped off Douglas Island. They have been telling a lot of wild stories about narrow escapes, and about repairing their boat and going on to San Francisco. Friends of the man reported drowned called on the U. S. marshal yesterday to get proof of Anderson's death. There certainly is an African in the woodpile."

M. S. "Andy" Anderson, who was with the party on a cruise to Skagway, but who left the launch here, is working in Juneau. He is very much alive.

The first white man known to have visited that part of Canada now designated as the Yukon Territory was Robert Campbell, says one of our exchanges. He was an employee of "The Ancient and Honorable Company of Adventurers Trading Into the Hudson Bay." The company is now known as "The Hudson Bay Company." Campbell went down the Yukon in 1838.
